A Frightened Citizen.

Maud S. would have gone up an alley and kicked herself to death had she seen the bare-headed and wild-looking individual who came down Market street past the Court-house, screaming "bloody murder! police! thieves!" etc., about 8 o'clock last evening. He was in an awful hurry, but Pair elmen Dawson and McCain headed him off at the Postoffice, and asked him what was the matter. The stranger explained that while drinking at the James House saloon an unknown had snatched his hat and would not return it to him. It is just possible he thought somebody would "take" him next, and he made haste to get away, yelling as he went. The officers walked back to the saloon with him, and compelled the party who had his headgear to return it to him.

The State Board of Agriculture.

The State Board of Agriculture held another meeting yesterday. Both the President and Vice President were absent, and Mr. Sieg took the Chair. Several amendments were made to the resolution passed on Tuesday, recommending certain amendments to the laws for the encouragement of agriculture. A communication was received from the Woman's Department of the State Fair asking that they be given entire control over that feature of the general display. The communication was referred to a committee, with instructions to report whether or not it would be advisable to accede to the request. The remainder of the day was spent in the revision of the premium list.

Blind Asylum Entertainment.

An entertainment given by the pupils of the Blind Asylum last evening was witnessed by a large and fashionable audience. It was enjoyable affair in every respect, an excellent programme being presented. The entertainment began with some very fine music by the brass band, after which came recitations and singing, about fifty of the pupils taking part in the exercises. The clever performance of Frank Ballon on the piano was loudly applauded, as was also a comical song, "Cackle, Cackle," by a number of young gentlemen. The singing of Minerva Parry was excellent, and in fact all of the participants acquitted themselves with credit.

That Fight.

The fight at the abattoir Tuesday was explained yesterday. One of the drivers came in suffering from cold, and had to be carried up stairs and thawed out. "Big Henry" made a remark to the effect that he was suffering from the effects of cold and whisky, upon which the driver jumped up and started toward the speaker with an opened knife. "Big Henry" raised a chair and knocked the driver senseless, at the same time causing the knife to shut on his hand and cut it severely. An ambulance was sent for and the injured man was removed.

The Supreme Court.

The following cases were decided in the Supreme Court yesterday:
10,163. Indiana Car Company vs. Edward F. Parker. Henry C. C. Affirmed. Elliott, J.
11,850. Henry T. Ketcham vs. Cromwell W. Babcock, executor, etc. Vago S. C. Affirmed. How, J.

COURT-HOUSE LOCALS.

W. D. Griffin Wants Steve Crawford to Pay Him $5,000 Damages—Record of the Courts.

The injunction suit of Jesse Wright vs. J. W. Hess and others was dismissed yesterday. John W. P. Cummer and Thomas A. Dean were yesterday adjudged sane in the Circuit Court.

Charles H. Nix yesterday took judgment against John W. Ramsey, in Room 1, on notes for $5,230.

Ether A. Bristor has filed suit on deposit against Fletcher & Sharpe to collect $2,063.32. Demand, $2,100.

The suit of Hanna W. Harris vs. the Citizens' Insurance Company, to collect $750, is on trial by jury in No. 3. The defense is that plaintiff took out other insurance without notifying the defendant.

The paternity suit of Mary Lisher vs. Joseph Wheatley is on trial by jury in the Circuit Court. Wheatley is the merchant policeman. The case has been pending for about a year. The defense is in the nature of flat denial.

The Trustees of Schiller Lodge, No. 61, K. of P., have filed suit against Conrad Mueller and his bondsmen to collect $600. The complaint charges that Mueller, as the Treasurer, holds $600 due the lodge and refuses to pay it over on demand.

In the suit of Lewis E. Campbell vs. the I. and V. Road, Judge Taylor yesterday entered a finding quieting title in the defendant. This was a suit sent over from Morgan County, on a change of venue, and involved a question of right of way.

In the suit of David D. Long, administrator, vs. the Big Four Road the jury in Room 3 yesterday returned a verdict for plaintiff for $4,000. Long represents the estate of Charles Compton, who was killed over a year ago on South Pennsylvania street.

In the replevin suit of John C. Mathai et al. vs. Sheriff Carter an agreement was made between the parties yesterday, by which plaintiff's recover possession of their goods, worth about $3,000. This was a suit to recover goods sold to George S. Carrington, who afterward made an assignment.

William D. Griffin has filed suit against Stephen Crawford for damages growing out of their difficulty two weeks ago. The complaint alleges that on the 27th of January he went out to serve a subpoena for witnesses to appear before Justice Peabody, when he was attacked by the defendant. He was permanently injured, besides being caused great pain and suffering, loss of time, etc. Demand $5,000.

The Grand Jury yesterday made its final report and was discharged by Judge Norton. The report shows that the jury examined 155 witnesses and returned thirty-seven indictments, as follows:

Petit larceny.....16
Grand larceny.....1
Petit larceny and receiving stolen goods.....1
Assault and battery.....1
Allowing minor to play pool.....1
Nuisance.....1
Embezzlement.....1
False pretenses.....1
Selling liquor to minor.....1
Attempting to procure miscarriage and manslaughter.....1
Carrying concealed weapons.....1
Two prisoners, Frank Rounds and Dick Smith, were discharged and two cases were continued. The following indictments were returned: Charles S. Hensley, procuring an abortion and manslaughter; William Price, slaughter; Peter Brady, petit larceny; Charles Hardesty, petit larceny; Lucy McMahon, petit larceny; John O'Hara, petit larceny; John Cole, grand larceny; George Wilsow, grand larceny; Frederick Williams and Joseph Franklin, petit larceny and receiving stolen goods. In the case against Hensley there are twenty-three witnesses for the State.

IRON HIGHWAYS.

A Railroad that is Managed for the Benefit of the Stockholders—Bay Window Cars—Other Items.

Snow blockades have caused serious inconvenience and loss of time on the Logansport division of the Vandalsia.

"There will be an abundance of broken rails when the thaw comes," said a master mechanic to a reporter of the Sentinel yesterday.

For several days the sidetracks of the various Indianapolis roads have been covered with loaded cars awaiting transportation. The intense cold weather and snow have certainly had a demoralizing effect on the iron highways. Nearly all of the roads on which trains were abandoned on Tuesday began running again yesterday, and there is a number of the trains on the several Chicago lines which have been covered with mountains of the beautiful will be dug out to day.

A freight car on the Boston and Providence Railroad has been equipped with the Turner-Beard automatic momentum brake and the tests which are being made in the yards of that railroad in Boston are attracting the attention of railroad men. Mr. Turner, the inventor, is a practical locomotive engineer and machinist, and has been quietly working up his invention by experimenting with it in actual use, until now he feels that it is a complete success, and will do all that can be expected of any automatic brake, and more than is done by any other.

It is understood that two of the nine bay window cars recently ordered by the Pennsylvania people will be placed on the J. & M. and L. These cars are elegantly equipped, and the bay-windows do not project from the side as the name would indicate, but the idea has been carried out by reducing the interior at intervals of about six feet. In this way a pretty effect is obtained within the chairs are so located as to set the benefit of the bay-window arrangement. The interior appointments are extremely handsome. The cars were constructed at the shops of the company in Altoona at an enormous cost, and it is generally believed that they will give satisfaction. They are in use on a number of the most important roads in the East, and will in a short time be introduced on several of the Chicago lines.

In these times of almost universal complaint of corporate mismanagement and dishonesty, says the Boston Commercial Bulletin, it is refreshing to be able to point to a corporation that is managed honestly and for the benefit of the stockholders. We refer to the Chicago and Eastern Illinois Railroad Company, the stock and bonds of which are very largely owned in Boston. By the figures recently published we notice that during the six months ending December 31, 1884, a reduction of nearly $300,000 had been made in the floating indebtedness of the company, and we understand that negotiations are now in progress that will still further reduce the floating liabilities and perhaps extinguish them. The reduction mentioned has been accomplished by using the net earnings and the proceeds of sales of the first consolidated mortgage bonds, which were issued last summer for that purpose. The President of the company, Mr. Horace H. Stevens, of this city, is well known. He has the confidence of the large stockholders, and under his management the first mortgage bonds of the company have advanced from 55 to 105.

THE WESTERN LEAGUE.

The Organization to Be Formed To-Day—The Names of Those Who Will Take Part in the Meeting.

The much-talked of meeting of the new Western League to have been held yesterday at the Grand Hotel was postponed until to-day, owing to the non-arrival of several snow-bound delegates. The only gentlemen who got in yesterday were Ted Sullivan and A. V. McKim, of Kansas City, and H. C. Lawrence, of Cleveland. The meeting will be called to order at noon, and the following besides the above named will be in attendance: D. Dietrich, Nashville; T. Loftus and W. C. Kipp, Milwaukee; S. W. Whipple, Toledo, and Thompson, of St. Paul; F. W. Wright and J. C. Homer, Cincinnati; besides representatives of Terre Haute and the Spaulding and Resch base ball concerns. It is also understood that the "great uncrushed" Secretary of the Cincinnati Americans and base ball editor of the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette will be seen ambulating through the corridors of the Grand. He comes ostensibly to report the meeting for this paper. There is no truth in the statement that the Cincinnati Union are to be barred. They made application to become members of the new league some time ago, and will be admitted to day beyond a doubt. Manager Watkins, of the home team, and Ted Sullivan are much elated over the prospects of the new league, and say that it promises to be one of the most powerful base ball organizations in the country. The latter is of the opinion that the nine which Indianapolis will present this season is a very strong one and expects his own team to do some good work.

It was learned last night that Howard Barnes is financially interested in the local club. It will be remembered that he was a stockholder in the O'Leary nine two years ago.

The Moody Convention.

The several committees of the Moody Christian Convention met yesterday, and perfected arrangements for the coming meetings, to be held at Roberts Park Church, on the 23d, 24th and 25th instants. Professor and Mrs. Towner, singers, of Cincinnati, will be present. The following is the programme:
